WILLIAM THOMAS

Dies Thursday at His Home South of Prospect.

William Thomas, aged fifty-one years, died at his home three miles south of Prospect at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning. Death was due to consumption of several months duration.

A widow, four children, three brothers and five sisters survive.
Funeral services will be conducted from the home at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Burial will be made at Radnor.

A regular meeting of the Maecenas was held last night, and one candidate was initiated. Arrangements were made for a box model to be given for the Ladies of the Maecenas and the Sir Knights a week from next Wednesday. A musical and literary program will be a feature of the affair.

INSTITUTE A BIG SUCCESS

Large Crowds Present at Every Session.

RENDER FINE PROGRAM

For Help and Benefit of These in Attendance.

Waldo Farmers' Institute by Far the Most Successful Ever Held in That Village.

The Wednesday afternoon session of the Waldo Farmers' Institute was marked by an exceedingly large attendance. Fully five hundred people crowded the hall and a most enthusiastic session resulted.

The program opened with a question box, bringing up questions referring to almost every detail of a farmer's occupation and resulting in interesting discussions.

One of the principal features of the program was the music which was rendered by the Waldo Philharmonic orchestra under the direction of William Michael.

The program was interspersed with musical selections from this organization and was greatly appreciated.
"The Modern Horse and How to Get Him" was the subject of speaker P. A. Derthick's talk. He emphasized that training has greatly increased with the making of the horse, both in style and manner. He said, "The management of the horse is nearly everything and the way to get a modern horse is to raise and train him."

Mr. Joseph Kile, of south of the city made an interesting talk on "Corn and How to Cultivate It." His remarks were very practical and based on experience.

W. H. Unepner disclosed some personal interesting experiences with potato growing and cultivation in general. He advised that potatoes be cultivated in flat hills, and never in elevated rows.

G. M. Parks, president elect of the institute talked at length on "Fencing the Farm." He favored the wire fence and described how to place them so as to be economical.

The afternoon program closed with a talk by speaker J. L. Sawyer on "Clovers and Their Values."

WEDNESDAY EVENING.
The program opened with music by the orchestra. The attendance was very large and a number were turned away on account of the small capacity of the hall.

The first talk of the evening was delivered by speaker J. L. Sawyer on "Why Go to the City, Young Man?" He compared the farmer boy's average wages with those of the city chap, demonstrating that the former received the higher wages and has a better chance of saving them.

Prof. A. B. Jones, superintendent of the Waldo schools, read a very interesting paper on "Agriculture in the Rural Schools." He upheld that agriculture should be a special study in the country schools, and the conglomeration of texts which are not at all practical to the farmer and yet attract the greatest attention in the rural schools, should be done away with. Mr. Jones advanced some very plausible and practical theories and the paper was one of a very worthy nature.

The evening program closed with a fine address, "To the Garden of the Gods and Other Places" by P.
A. Derthick. He reviewed in an interesting story his travels through the West and finally to Utah City of the Garden of the Gods, describing the scenery and the various views of agricultural industries.

ADD FARMERS INSTITUTE
THURSDAY MORNING.

The attendance was very good at the morning session Thursday, and the program was one of a very interesting and instructive nature.
It opened with music by the orchestra, after which the invocation was spoken by Rev. H. G. Kopenhagen.

pastor of the Waldo M. E. church.
Speaker P. A. Derthick talked at length on "State Taxation," dwelling particularly on points only of special interest to the farmer.
"How to Buy Cows" was the subject of a short talk by William Michael. After a musical number by the orchestra, Elmer Smith spoke of "Does It Pay?" referring to various incidents of the farmer's life.
The program closed with an address by J. L. Sawyer on "Household Aids and Conveniences."

PYTHIANS ENJOY MORRAL OUTING

One Hundred Local Members
Make the Trip.

Pythian Sisters Entertain Gentlemen with Enjoyable Marquer-ade Social.

More than one hundred members of Marion Lodge No. 402 K. of P. were delightfully entertained by the Pythian sisters at a convivial dinner at the Hotel Hocking. The local order chartered a special train on the Hocking valley and reached Morral about 5:30 o'clock. They were met at the train by a large delegation.

A line of march was formed and headed by one of the largest gents that the little town could afford.
The procession passed through the streets finally halting at the lodge quarters.

The Marion degree team did some exhibition stunts and conferred the third degree upon a class of three candidates. The local K. of P. orchestra was present and rendered a program of fine selections.

At the conclusion of the program the guests were ushered to an elegant store room below the lodge hall, and a sumptuous three course supper was served. The Marion degree returned home about midnight and are loud in their praise of the hospitality shown them by Marion lodge and people.

The Pythian Sisters entertained their husbands and gentlemen friends last night with a cleverly appointed marquerade social at the Crosby lodge hall.

About 150 persons attended the affair and the great variety of programs, clever and comic costumes added rich to the charm of the scene. After a short social season, a series of dances was enjoyed. The grand march was led by Mr. Will Beum and Mrs. Turner.

Excellent refreshments were served during an intermission in the dance. lag.

The Home Guards did not meet last night, owing to the fact that the lodge is moving its quarters from the Forester lodge room on West Center street to the Red Men's rooms on South Main street. This lodge will meet next Wednesday night at which time the newly installed officers of the lodge will entertain the members with a banquet.

Aside from routine business transacted by the Fraternal Order of Eagles Wednesday evening it was decided to change the place of meeting from the Redmen's hall to the hall formerly occupied by the Golden Eagles in the old Masonic Hall. The work of moving the furniture and fixtures was started today.

NARROW ESCAPE HAS SCHOOL GIRL

Struck by Horse and Dragged Under Buggy.

Miss Dora Schneemilch of Pearl Street has Thrilling Experience on Her Way to School.

Miss Dora Schneemilch, a pretty fourteen year old high school girl, had a very narrow escape from serious injury, at the corner of Center and Prospect streets, shortly before one o'clock this afternoon.

Miss Schneemilch was on her way to school when she hurried across Center street ahead of an approaching car and ran directly in front of a horse and buggy. She was knocked down by the horse and thrown under the wheels of the buggy. Grabbing the axle she held on for dear life, while the heels of the horse threatened at any moment to kick her into unconsciousness.

When the rig was stopped, the girl got out of her perilous position, and without saying anything hurried on to school unhurt.

Her clothing was torn in places, and was covered with mud from the wet street. Witnesses of the accident state that only her remarkable presence of mind prevented her from being run over by the vehicle or crushed beneath the horse's feet.
Miss Schneemilch is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schneemilch, of Pearl street.

BURNS GETS NEW TRIAL

Is Returned From the Ohio Penitentiary.

LOWER COURT REVERSED

By Both the Circuit and Supreme Courts.

Answer and Cross Petition Filed in Case of DeLauder Against Parish et al—Court News.

Robert Burns, sentenced to serve four years in the Ohio penitentiary, about one year ago by Judge Young, on a charge of horse stealing, was brought from the penitentiary at noon Thursday, and is now in the county jail. The supreme court has reversed the common pleas and reversed the circuit court, and ordered a new trial for Burns. He has already served a little over a year of his sentence, but in the event that he is again sentenced, this sentence will not count on the new sentence.

The mandate from the supreme court, awarding Burns a new trial, sets forth the following reasons "or the reversal of the lower courts:
"Error in affirming the judgment and the sentence of the Court of Common Pleas of Marion county in this case. And proceeding to render the judgment which said circuit court should have rendered.

"It is considered and adjudged that the judgment of the said court of common pleas be, and the same is hereby reversed for error. In response to give in its charge to the jury instructions No. 2 requested by counsel for the defendant below; also for error in overruling the objection of counsel for defendant below to the statements of the Prosecuting Attorney to the jury respecting the alleged receipt of the Ohio penitentiary; also for error in over-ruling the motion of the defendant below for a new trial.

"It is further ordered and adjudged that the plaintiff in error recover of defendant in error his costs in this court and in the Circuit court."

Just when Burns will be retried has not been determined by the court, but it will be as soon as possible. DeLauder and DeLauder represented Burns at his trial and have since fought his case through the circuit and supreme courts.

An amendment to the answer of the Firemen's Insurance company in the case of W. H. Hinklin against that company, was filed Thursday morning. It is claimed that one of the conditions written in the policy on which the plaintiff seeks to recover, is to the effect that should disburse arise as to a settlement of a loss, both parties agree to pick an appraiser and those two choose an umpire for the purpose of trying to adjust the loss.

It is claimed that the company and the plaintiff could not agree, but that instead of so choosing a disinterested party the plaintiff brought this action without trying further to adjust the disagreement.

The amendment is filed by McNeal and Son and J. W. Mooney.

An answer has been filed in the case of the McCall company against Nash Gast, doing business as the Gast grocery company. The plaintiff claims that the defendant is indebted to him in the sum of $128.37 on a contract made for the purchase of a number of patterns. In his answer the defendant claims that a part of the contract was to the effect that all "discarded" patterns should be returned to the company and the defendant received a credit of 50 per cent. of the purchase price. According to this agreement, the defendant claims he is entitled to credit for $64.18. He asks that the contract be reformed and that he be given proper credit. Mouser and Quigley represent the defendant.

An answer and cross petition has been filed in the matter of Lawson H. DeLauder against Barriars J.
Parish and others. The plaintiff sues to recover $225, which he alleges is due him on a contract made for the building of a kitchen and porch on the Parish residence.

The defendant says that the contract was verbal and that the kitchen was not of the dimensions specified in the contract that a portion of the old porch was used in the construction of the new and that the contract price was $225, in short she denies that DeLauder fulfilled his contract. The answer is filed by Mouser and Quigley.

An amendment to the cross petition has been filed in the matter of A. H. Kling and E. G. Allen, assignees in trust for the benefit of the creditors of T. P. Wallace, against Martha Cunningham and others. The petition avers that John Schwoeckdeck, one of the de-made a party and required to set up his interest or be forever barred.

Crisinger and Galtrey represent the plaintiffs.

The plaintiff has been granted leave to file an amended petition in the matter of the Acme Food company against Thomas F. Lundergan.

The attorney matter of Anna F.
Haire against Robert Dahre has been settled and the costs paid.
